What fabulous 'All About Me' posters I had sent in yesterday. Miss Meads was excited to see them.

Can you remember this song? Can you teach someone in your house all the dance moves.

Miss Meads Task

Miss Meads wants to know a little bit more about yourself. Can you fill the butterfly?

Spreading My Wings from Reception to Year 1

This is a game to play with a partner. You will end up with a funny body. Send me an email of your funny bodies you have made.

Here is the funny body that Molly and I drew. I was drawing a footballer and Molly was drawing a ballerina.

Kim's Game

Today we are going to play Kim's Game which means, Keep In Memory. This is a good game to help you concentrate and remember things. It warms up your brain.

Can you collect 10 things from around the house and put them on a tray. You need to look carefully at them. Cover the tray with a tea-towel and ask an adult to take one away. No peeping! Can you work out which item is missing? Then it is your turn to take an object. Can the adult guess which one you have taken? Who is the first to get to 10 points?

Maths

This is a good game to play to keep your brain active. Play number bonds to 10, doubles to 10 or halves of 20. The more you play the quicker your brain works.
