What did you pick?

I am going to do this one, because I watched the rocket launch the other week. Did you? It was very exciting, I even saw it in the night sky when it was orbiting the Earth!

I would love to see your drawings, so please email me a photo of your fab work!

That tiny dot is the space rocket. It is so far away, up in space, that it looks like a little dot of light. But inside, there were 2 a exciting is that?

Do you know what the other thing in th

2 Dojos for any correct answers!

Let's get started with our maths today!

This week, we have done a lot of measuring. Edgar was supposed to help me finish these sentences about measure, but has again... such a cheeky monkey! Can you help me finish these Year 2?

Write the number of the sentence, then the missing words. Use the word box below to help you.

There is a super challenge below for you too. Why not give it a try today for some extra dojos?!

Email me your answers, I might even give you some dojos! Are you ready?!

Our next lesson today is writing

This week in RE we have been thinking about our special places. Remember, this was mine...

Most of us will have a favourite part of our special places. For example, the water is particularly special to me because the people paddling past, swans swimming by and ducks paddling around, makes me feel calm!

Your favourite part of your special place might be a tree you like to sit under, a part of your garden you really like, or a special place in your place of worship.

Today, I want you to choose your favourite part of your special place to tell me about it, using your fantastic creative writing techniques. You could use adjectives, similes or alliteration! Don't forget every sentence must start with a capital letter and end with a full stop.

Write in your best handwriting and draw a picture of your special place next to your description. I cannot wait to read your amazing descriptive writing!

Here are my sentences.

Often, I will sit staring at the beautiful, sparkling water which is as clear as the finest glass. The flowing, royal blue water reflects the lovely, lace white clouds. They are as fluffy as candy floss. Splish, splash, splish. The paddles of cool kayaks cut through the water, as cheerful children chat merrily. This place is as special as the finest gift, the most ornate art or a baby's laugh. I feel as calm as the still night, and as joyful as a Year 2 in singing assembly.

Can you spot my time adverbial in my first sentence?

Please email me so I can imagine what your special place is like... I will even give you 5 dojos.

Last up today is PE!

It always feels great to get your heart thumping and body moving, especially when we are sitting down a lot. Back to Joe Wicks for another great PE session to wrap up our learning this week!

I can't wait to read your lovely writing about your special places. Well done for another week of hard work!

If you have any problems, you can email me on our Year 2 email address. I have put together a little weekend bingo. Email me to tell me how you do! How many activities can you cross off?

If you manage all of them, I will give you 10 Dojos!

Practise your challenges for 10 minutes	Read a story to someone in your house	Give someone a compliment
