IN THE DOG HOUSE

Here is Matt's description of his first day working at weekends at the local dogs' home. Use the list of words to fill in the gaps in his account.

My sister said, "Matt, if you call yourself an animal-lover, and you want to earn some money, then you should get a weekend job taking the dogs out for a walk down at Mallory's Motel for Malevolent Mutts."

All week, my _____ bothered me. She was right. Not only did I need money to buy a new _____ for my drum kit, I spent most weekends totally _____.

When I phoned up, I didn't need to _____ Mr Mallory to take me on. He was delighted. He did say that some of the dogs, especially one called Killer did have a bit of a reputation for being rather _____, but not to worry.

My knees were shaking as I walked down there... right next door to the _____ - not a good sign. When I saw Killer, I just wondered what he must _____. He was huge. A pile of _____ and teeth. Then he took a step towards me and licked my face. Phew! Such an _____ dog.

You may need a dictionary to help you - look the definitions to decide if the words make sense in the sentences.

Topic work - British Birds

We did some work on garden birds before the half term break. It's a great time of year for spotting birds in your garden - there's lots around.

I want you to use the internet and specifically the RSPB website to research British Garden Birds. I want you to create factfiles for the birds. Include a sketch and the key information you can find: size, habitat, what they eat, colour of egg etc. Present it in the form of a poster. Make it bright and colourful and ensure they are neat! I've included links to some useful websites to help you.

I've included the outline of a bird to help you with your drawing. But feel free to draw your own if you think you can.

Have a great weekend everybody.
