Hello Class 4,

I hope you are all keeping safe and well.

Thank you to all the children who have been emailing me with their work. It is lovely to see so many of you working so hard and continuing your learning at home.

Now, to get started with our home learning for today! As always, if you have any problems just email: yearfour@blowers.dudley.sch.uk and I will be happy to help!

Mrs Ghent

P.S

Remember, to keep practising your times tables up to 12x AND you also have your challenges to work on too!

Subject	Task	Link/Resources
Literacy	Task 1: See below - Reading Comprehension	Read the text below and answer the questions using full sentences in your Blue Home Learning Book .
Numeracy	Task 1: Let's keep our scores up on Times Table Rock Stars - can you answer each question in less than 6 seconds? Once you have practised by yourself - can you then challenge a friend to a match in Rock Slam by simply clicking on their name or class.	Log-in to Times Table Rock Stars using: https://ttrockstars.com/ and your Username and Password which we stuck on the front cover of your Blue Home Learning Book . Remember, we can log on too in order to see how you are doing!

	Task 2: See below - Division & Multiplication Complete the questions below.	Scroll down for your questions. You may choose to answer the ★, ★★ or ★★★ questions or all 3 if you can!
PSHE	Take some time for your mind...  Mind Full, or Mindful?	How is your gratitude jar going? Can you add anymore things that you are grateful for?   Create a gratitude jar. Lucy and the Leprechaun

Lucy lived with her grandfather in an old cottage on the edge of the woods. The cottage was falling to pieces. The windows had cracks, loose bricks hung from the walls and grass grew in clumps on the roof.

Lucy and her grandfather weren't lazy. For years, they had wished their home could be repaired. But her grandfather wasn't as young as he once was. He didn't have the strength to haul bricks or balance on roofs. They couldn't afford anyone else to help, as all their money went on food.

Every morning, Lucy would wake her grandfather with a gentle kiss. "Today will be a good day!" she would say.

"Today will give us luck," he would reply.

Then, Lucy would do her chores before heading into the woods on her way to school.

But, today was different.

Today was St. Patrick's Day and there was a different look in her grandfather's eyes. "You must find luck..." was all he said as Lucy headed out of the front door.

Before long, she came across a bag hanging from an old oak tree. On the bag were the words 'Catch me if you can'.

"Erm, do mind helping me?" the bag said.

Lucy jumped with fright. "H...help you?" she said.

"Yes," the bag replied. "I'm stuck!"

Then, the bag began to fall! Lucy jumped and caught the bag before it hit the floor. She gently lowered it, untied the string, then stepped back.

A small man with a pointy red beard crawled out. He was dressed in green, with a funny hat on top of his head. "You caught me!" he said. "Thank you! My name is Gorm-Glas. I am a leprechaun and you have three wishes!"

"I can't ask for any wishes," Lucy said. "I caught you because you may have been hurt!"

"Then, allow me to wish you luck," the small man said with a twinkle in his eye.

Lucy thanked him and continued on her way.

That evening, when she returned home, something amazing had happened. The cottage had been completely rebuilt! Somehow, the little leprechaun had used his magic to make Lucy's wishes come true for her! The bricks looked new, the window panes had been replaced and there were no clumps of grass on the roof!

"You found it!" cried Lucy's grandfather. "I knew you would!"

"Find what, Grandfather?" Lucy laughed.

"That little bit of magic luck..." her grandfather said and he gave her a great big hug.
